CySec Club

The CySec Club, established by the Department of Cyber Security, aims to enhance students' technical and professional competencies in the field of cyber security. It provides a platform for hands-on learning through workshops, competitions, and industry interactions, fostering skills in ethical hacking, digital forensics, and network defense. The club encourages research, innovation, and teamwork, preparing students for industry and higher studies. It also strengthens the department's academic ecosystem by promoting student engagement, industry collaboration, and showcasing excellence in emerging cyber security domains.
