DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES

Innovative Teaching Methodology

Name of the course : Research Methodology

Topic : Data Validation

Course Incharge : Dr. G. Venkateshwaran

Innovative Method : Peer Learning

The peer learning session on Data Validation in Research successfully enhanced students' understanding of key research quality concepts. By teaching and learning from each other, MBA students developed stronger analytical skills, improved their confidence in research processes, and gained hands-on experience in identifying and rectifying data issues. The activity proved to be highly effective in strengthening research competency and preparing students for academic and industry-based research tasks.
